Release Form

I understand the inherent risks involved in a mission trip, such as bad or dangerous weather, dangers associated with travel, health risks, etc. I also understand that there are unforeseeable hazards and expenses that ByGrace Trust and the trip organizers cannot control, such as weather hazards, flight delays, passport or visa difficulties, political issues, terrorist activities, sickness or injury, including, but not limited to, malaria, cholera, yellow fever, typhoid fever, hepatitis, HIV, diarrhea, snake bite, or insect bite. I know and understand the risks involved in transportation, hiking and weather that may result in health issues, injury, imprisonment, loss of property, and even the possibility of death. I understand that my rights as a United States citizen are not recognized outside the United States. I will be prompt to report to my leader/overseer anything that I see and feel is an unsafe action or condition.

I feel called to be a member of this mission trip to bring the love of Christ to other cultures and serve the indigenous ministries there. I hereby release ByGrace Trust and its board of directors, its employees, and any individuals or organizations that I may be working with from liability to person or property arising out of and from the responsibility for my well-being, physically, emotionally, and financially.

Upon signing this Release form, I am stating that I understand the risks involved, and I assume all responsibility for any risks or dangers incurred while on this trip from the time I leave my home until I return to my home town.

- ◆ I understand that I am financially responsible for covering my portion of the expenses of this trip either through fundraising or personal resources.
